

Immigration

Do you want to apply for UK residency or citizenship? Or for permission to study or work?

We're one of the most experienced firms in the field of immigration and visa law. Whatever the details of your case we'll be able to offer the very best support and advice. We're proud of our track record in helping people to reach a positive outcome as quickly as possible.

We are a law firm that speaks your language:

Urdu, Punjabi, Mirpuri, Hindi, Cantonese and Mandarin

Contact us to find out how we can help with:

- Visas and appeals for husbands/wives, fiancés, dependent relatives, students and visitors
- Naturalisation
- Registration
- Home Office travel documents
- Certification of documents
- Sponsorship and declarations
- Appeals

Costs and prices

An application for a spouse visa or general visa may cost an average of £750 plus vat and disbursements (see link below)

Current Home Office fees can be found here.

Our charges are based on an hourly rate. The above price is based on the hourly charge out rates and the time we expect a standard case to take:

- Manoj Kumar Athi – Partner & solicitor - £200 per hour – 10 years experience
- Prem Pal – Partner & solicitor - £200 per hour – 20 years experience
- Abdul Rehman – Paralegal - £150 per hour – 2 years experience

Timescales

Visa applications will take approximately 3 weeks to prepare and submit. The Home Office are currently taking up to 6 months to decide such applications however the Home Office does offer premium services on certain applications for speedier resolution at an additional cost (fees above in the link)

Services not included in the costs above

None

